

Laboratory tall cabinets

- > The POL-LAB company, as a recognized manufacturer of laboratory furniture, offers a wide range of cabinets that will prove themselves not only as equipment for laboratories, but also for industrial and storage rooms. Our assortment includes metal, laminated and foamed PVC cabinets.
- > We are a manufacturer of laboratory furniture available in various sizes and variants – we offer laboratory cabinets with hinged, shutter, retractable and sliding doors.
- > In addition to metal and laminated cabinets, our offer includes specialized cabinets for chemicals. These are laboratory furniture designed to store hazardous substances, which are made entirely of high-class chemically resistant material.
- > Laboratory cabinets for chemicals are equipped with, among others:
guides made of polypropylene,
safe external elements made of plastic,
own side ventilation channels,
profiled cuvettes protecting against spillage of the substance.
As a manufacturer of laboratory furniture valued on the market, we offer you only solutions that meet stringent quality and safety standards.
- > Chemical cabinets
The chemical cabinets available in our assortment are high-class furniture made of materials with increased chemical resistance, which are designed to store corrosive, dangerous or flammable substances.

Bookcases, laminated cabinets, desks

In addition to chemical cabinets, POL-LAB's offer includes shelves, desks and laminated cabinets. This type of laboratory furniture will perfectly fulfill its function not only in laboratories – it can also be used as equipment for storage, industrial or office spaces.

Metal shelves and cabinets

Solidly made metal shelves and cabinets are furniture with increased resistance to mechanical damage, which will be perfect as equipment for laboratories, microbiological laboratories, as well as office rooms. They can be used wherever safe storage and storage is a priority.

Chemical cabinets – hazardous substances, store them safely

In our offer you will also find cabinets for chemicals, made entirely of chemically resistant material, non-corrosive material, ensuring long life in the face of sharp substances stored in it.

SYSTEM of doors opened independently with acid/base scales.

Guides made entirely of polypropylene.

The cuvettes are made of polypropylene with a pull-out lock.

Own side ventilation channel.

Equipped with a fan as an option or with the possibility of connecting to the existing installation at the customer's.

Safe external elements also made of plastic.

The profile of the cuvette prevents the substance from spilling out.

Compliance with PN-EN16121+A1 – Storage cabinets

The offer also includes many other standards of cabinets for glass and reagents in glazed or full, laminated or metal versions.

Bookcases, Laminate cabinets, Desks top made of postforming laminate with a thickness of 28mm or 38mm with PVC trim. The entire table structure is based on:

– load-bearing frames made of high-quality steel with closed profiles, covered with epoxy powder paint, finished with adjustable plastic legs with the possibility of leveling and height adjustment – series A or C.

– load-bearing frames made of high-quality steel with closed profiles, covered with epoxy powder paint, fully welded, finished with adjustable plastic legs with the possibility of leveling and height adjustment.

– The entire structure of the table is made of 18mm thick laminated board

Possibility of building :

– containers on wheels

– keyboard shelf

– mobile shelf for a computer

– cabinets in A or C frames

– pedestal cabinets (in fully laminated desks)

(possibility of installing a central lock in cabinets)

Laminated bookcase open

Made of 18 mm thick board with a compacted structure covered with laminate on both sides, secured with 2 mm thick PVC veneer. Bookcase with shelves.

Laminated wardrobe full door

The cabinet consists of an 18 mm thick board with a compacted structure covered with laminate on both sides, protected with a 2 mm thick PVC veneer.

Laminated wardrobe with glass doors

The cabinet consists of a 18 mm thick board with a compacted structure covered with laminate on both sides, secured with a 2 mm thick PVC veneer. The door is glazed on 2/3 of the height.

• Also available in non-standard dimensions

Bookcases, metal cabinets

Metal cabinets with a modern design as well as high-quality workmanship are a perfect element of equipment for industrial and office spaces. A wide range of products allows the user to choose the right model for their own needs. Metal furniture is used in offices, production halls, workshops, schools and many other places where safe and comfortable storage and storage are a priority. Depending on the model, we offer wardrobes with swing doors, shutter doors, retractable doors, sliding doors, as well as hanging and file cabinets. Office cabinets are equipped with adjustable shelves.